WHO DO THEY ALL BELONG TO?

YOU FOOL!

made with www.bookleeter.com from probocis

This is a booklet for writing on, for drawing and doodling as you blakewalk the 'S', starting at the south-east corner of London Bridge.
 If you do complete the walk, please send me [timw@xpt.com] a scan or a photo of your booklet so that your creative ramblings and visions can be combined with the works of other BlakeWalkers to produce a final Work of Genius.
