

White seagulls from the previous week's visit to Shoreham by Sea were added to the high, wide windows.

Carlisle Empty Shop

Dan Thompson

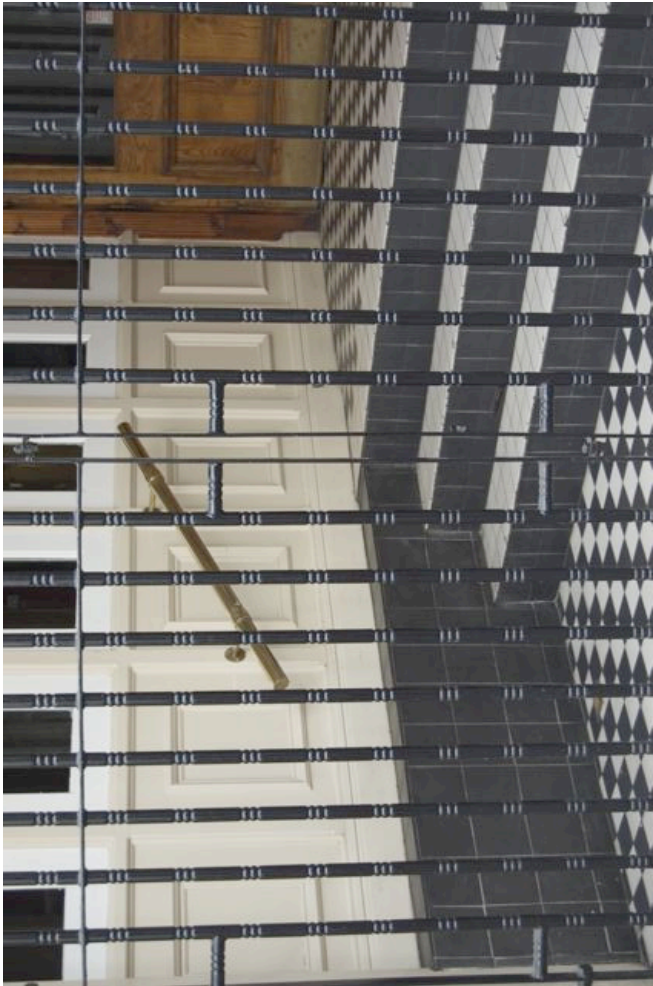

Empty Shops Network
17 Lowther Street, Carlisle
15 – 20 March 2010

An empty sandwich bar used as a social, wifi-enabled café and artspace for one week.

The Empty Shops Network brought in artists including the Caravan Gallery, Proboscis with Bookleteer, Alice Angus and Dan Thompson.

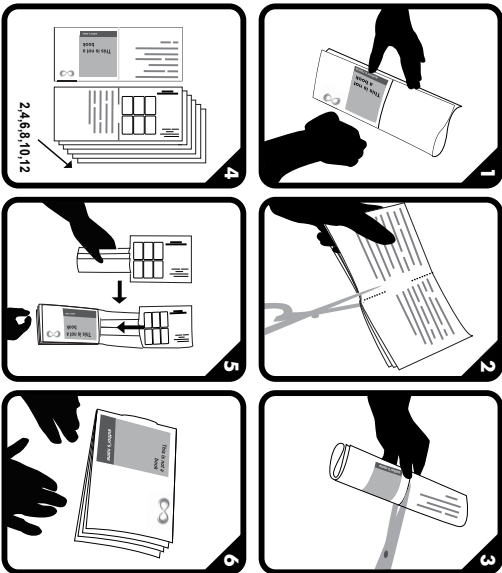

The space opened for one day as a gallery.

2010-03-19

www.artistsandmakers.com/emptyshops
Part of the Empty Shops Network
Tour
Supported by Meanwhile Project
17 Lowther Arcade, Carlisle
March 15-20th 2010

made with www.bookleteer.com from proboscis

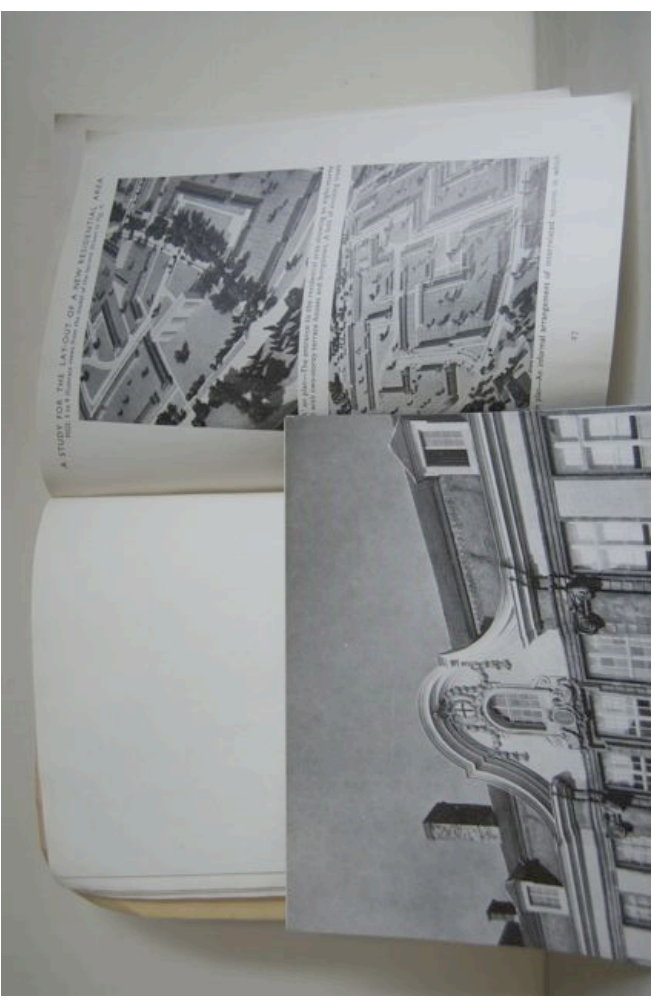

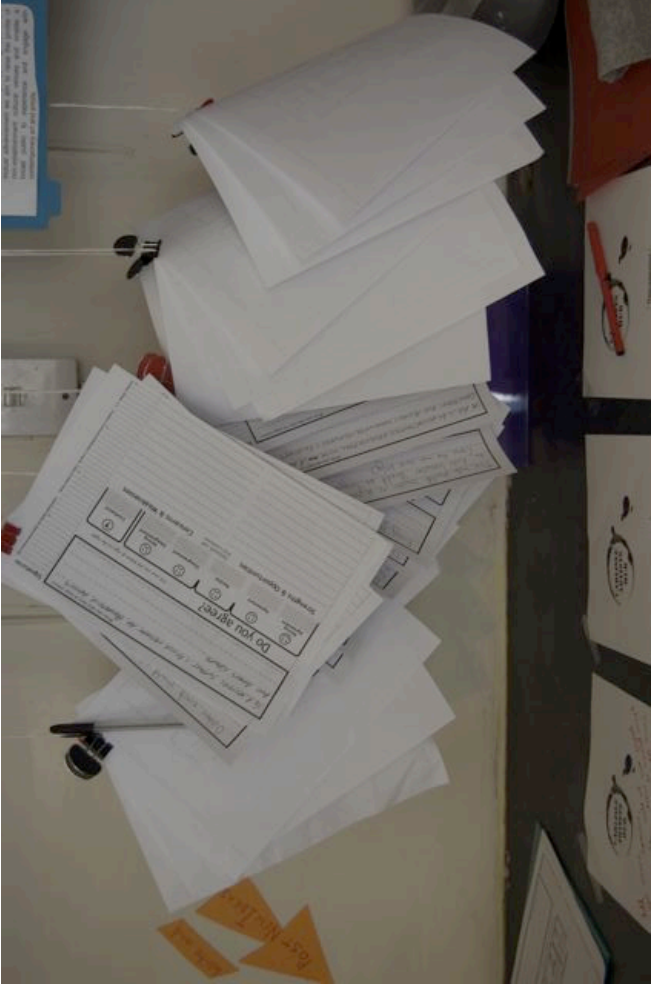

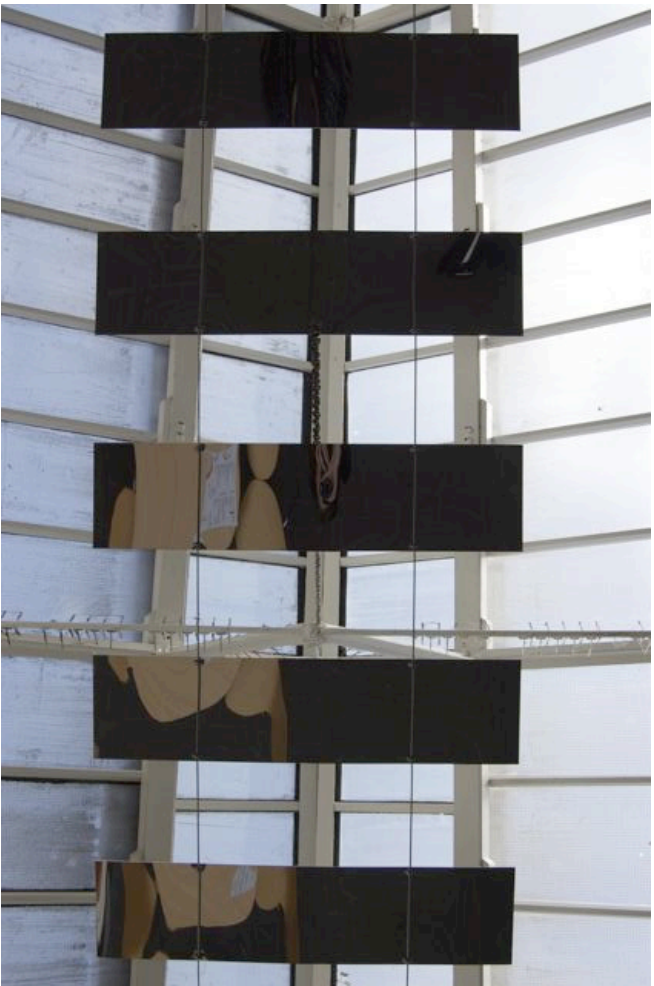

Dan Thompson responded to the city in writing; Proboscis spent a day making eBooks and storycubes about the project and using his words.

Items found in local charity shops
included:

- a 1949 Housing Manual for planners
- 800 toy soldiers
- a box of mourning stationery
- a ball of cotton for knitting dishcloths

