

White seagulls from the previous week's visit to Shoreham by Sea were added to the high, wide windows.

Carlisle Empty Shop

Dan Thompson

Empty Shops Network
 17 Lowther Street, Carlisle
 15 – 20 March 2010

An empty sandwich bar used as a social, wifi-enabled café and artspace for one week.

The Empty Shops Network brought in artists including the Caravan Gallery, Proboscis with Bookleteer, Alice Angus and Dan Thompson.

The space opened for one day as a gallery.

2010-03-19

www.artistsandmakers.com/emptyshops
 Part of the Empty Shops Network
 Tour
 Supported by Meanwhile Project
 17 Lowther Arcade, Carlisle
 March 15-20th 2010

made with www.bookleteer.com from proboscis

Dan Thompson responded to the city in writing; Proboscis spent a day making eBooks and storycubes about the project and using his words.

14

11

Items found in local charity shops included:

- a 1949 Housing Manual for planners
- 800 toy soldiers
- a box of mourning stationery
- a ball of cotton for knitting dishcloths

10

15