CAMBRIDGE
The City I Didn't Know

Diane Braga
CAMBRIDGE

There are many complaints I can put forth about the place I was born, raised and currently reside in. Cambridge, as far as my knowledge goes, previously, was known for having such nicknames as c-bridge, boresville, or my favorite, Lamebridge. The city of Cambridge had little to do and little places to visit... or so I thought.

First and foremost, I always believed that in order to truly like a place, you should understand it and to understand you need to know about it. I was on a search to find out more about the place I am from and if it affects me and my living.

Cambridge is located on the Grand River and Speed River in the Region of Waterloo, Ontario, Canada.
THE CENTRE IS HOME OF

Students Promoting the Art (S.P.T.A) meets weekly at the centre to plan events for the youth. They are responsible for planning and hosting concerts, film festivals and art shows.

CAMBRIDGE GALLERIES

"Cambridge Galleries are a part of the Cambridge Public Library system with art exhibition spaces at Queen's Square, Preston and the new Design at Riverside location. Together, the three galleries host approximately 23 exhibitions per year reflecting a range of local, regional, provincial, national and international developments in contemporary and historical visual art." (2)

CAMBRIDGE GALLERIES

"Cambridge Galleries are a part of the Cambridge Public Library system with art exhibition spaces at Queen's Square, Preston and the new Design at Riverside location. Together, the three galleries host approximately 23 exhibitions per year reflecting a range of local, regional, provincial, national and international developments in contemporary and historical visual art." (2)

HISTORY

In 1973, the township of Cambridge was formed as a result of its root city Galt, merging with the townships of Preston and Hespeler along with parts North Dumfries and Waterloo. With the first announcement of amalgamation, the newly combined city was to be named Galt, but Preston and Hespeler petitioned the province to instead have a new name, to be selected by a referendum on choices submitted by the three members.

Galt submitted Blair, while Preston and Hespeler combined to back Cambridge, after Cambridge Mills(originally an early name for the Preston settlement).

A more interesting fact, I learned, was that the first mayor was female. Claudette Miller, 35, whom was also the youngest mayor in Canada.

Things to do

The Mill Race Entrance

Play to fund raise for the centre. centre, where groups of local teen bands unite to

While Rock the Mill, more popular among teens, folk music and dance concert along

The Mill Race, takes place on an outside amphitheatre, naturally created through the ruins of the old mill, hence the Mill Race Festival. It is a free admission folk music and dance concert among

For myself, Cambridge is not just a place I call my

The city of Cambridge provides a comfortable

As for Cambridge's bad reputation for being a

Intriguing, so if Cambridge is lame then I must be

A more interesting fact, I learned, was that the

While Rock the Mill, more popular among teens, folk music and dance concert along

I found several places and things to do, and

Events to be apart of. It is up to myself to get out

Wish me luck.
CAMBRIDGE CENTRE FOR THE ARTS
The most engaging aspect of Cambridge, is its support for the arts through the Cambridge Galleries as well as the Cambridge Centre for the Arts. It has a listing of programmed classes/workshops and activities, such as dance, drama, pottery, music, creative writing, fabric arts and visual arts. Offered to ages 3 years to adult; Throughout the year as well as special summer courses. Artist-in-Residence Program Each year an artist from a different arts discipline is selected for the position of Artist in Residence. Sponsored by the Cambridge Arts Guild in partnership with the Cambridge Centre for the Arts, the programme is designed to operate for a 6 to 9 month period. During this time the individual will share their skills and talents with the community by engaging in events and activities held at the Centre, and often within the community itself. Interested writers, actors, musicians, dancers, potters, painters, sculptors, etc. are invited to submit their names for potential nomination in future years. (1)
Interested writers, actors, musicians, dancers, potters, painters, sculptors, etc. are invited to submit their names for potential nomination in the position of Artist in Residence. Sponsored by the Cambridge Arts Guild in partnership with the Cambridge Centre for the Arts, the programme is designed to operate for a 6 to 9 month period. During this time the individual will share their skills and talents with the community by engaging in events and activities held at the Cambridge Centre for the Arts, the Riverside Print Group and Cambridge Camera Club. Together, the three galleries host approximately 23 exhibitions per year reflecting a range of local, regional, provincial, national and international developments in visual arts. Offered to ages 3 years to adult; pottery, music, creative writing, fabric arts and workshops and activities, such as dance, drama, concerts, film festivals and art shows. The Theatre Inspired Mill Landscape (Rock the Mill 2007)

CAMBRIDGE GALLERIES
Studio 30 Watercolour Painters, Cambridge
Students Promoting the Art (S.P.T.A) meets
MAP: CAMBRIDGE
CAMBRIDGE CENTRE FOR THE ARTS
Queen's Square, Preston and the new Design at Speed River in the Region of Waterloo, Ontario
Mills(originally an early name for the Preston part North Dumfries and Waterloo. With the first settlement).
Lamebridge. The city of Cambridge had little to do and little places to visit or so I thought. ¼ and Hespeler petitioned the province to instead go, previously, was known for having such nick names as c- bridge, boresville, or my favorite, my favorite, announcement of amalgamation, the newly combined city was to be named Galt, but Preston was on a search to find out more about the place whom was also the youngest mayor in Canada. First and foremost, I always believed that in order to truly like a place, you should understand it and to understand you need to know about it. I am from and if it affects me and my living. I am from and if it affects me and my living. Canada.
CAMBRIDGE

The most engaging aspect of Cambridge, is its small town feel with the big city appeal. While Rock the Mill, more popular among teens, is created by the Fiddlesticks community play to fund raise for the centre. Rock the Mill Race Entrance Here for my years of life and have never heard of such events like the Mill Race or Rock the Mill free admission folk music and dance concert along with arts and crafts. The Mill Race, takes place on an outside amphitheatre, naturally created through the ruins of the old mill, hence the Mill Race Festival. It is a free admission folk music and dance concert along with arts and crafts.

THINGS TO DO
As for Cambridge's bad reputation for being a lame town, it's what you make of it. I've lived there and connect with my community. Wish me luck.