

can make a hat to adorn a cement lion.

BRINGING THE ELDERLY & THE YOUNG TOGETHER.

EMERGING and young artists will work w/ Westacott cottages

Fairfield Art and Craft Society to help them

Artwork: DAVID CAPRA, PRISM (FROM GATEWAYS), 08

Plastic pebbles

create site-specific works in a contemporary context.

ARTISTS: CULTURAL EXCHANGE.

Artists from outside Fairfield will be able to respond to the city, Fairfield/vv. Sydney artists will be

TITLE: "Keep off the grass" "MY LOT"

* How will the event be promoted

* Where will funding come from?

* Will works be accompanied with an explanation of the work?

* Which artists will be chosen? (Suburban stg)
* What street? (Harris St)

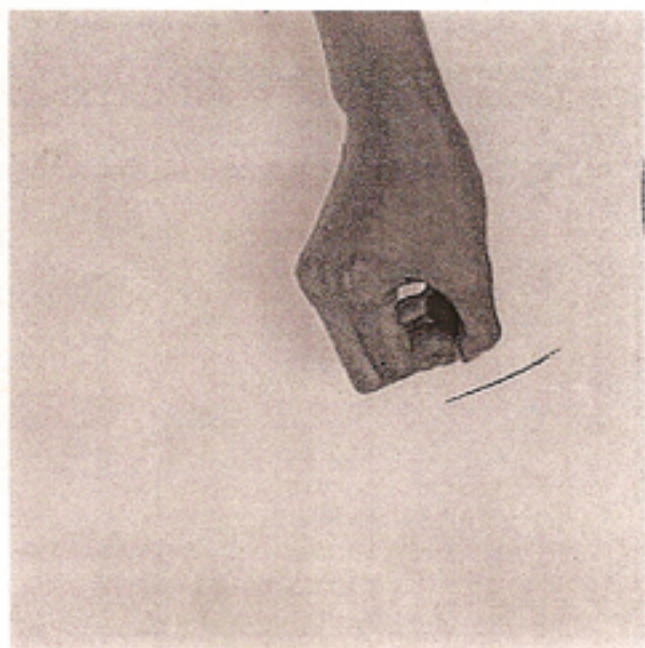

Questions

Lattice Sketchbook

ON-SITE STREET EXHIBITION IN FAIRFIELD.

Curry Finch, Welcome Home (2007)

Use this book to sketch out your ideas, directions and other thoughts inspired by the workshop.

1111111111

DAVID CAPRA.

www.diffusion.org.uk
DIFFUSION eBooks are designed to be freely available to download, print out and share.

created on: Thu Nov 29 16:06:52 2007

Lattice Sketchbook

Project or Direction Ideas

ARTISTS MAKING SITE SPECIFIC WORK IN FAIRFIELD

ARTISTS IN
AND AROUND
WESTERN SYDNEY
WILL BE INVITED

TO CREATE WORKS THAT WILL BE DISPLAYED IN THE STREETS OF FAIRFIELD.

Words from days 1 and 2
landmarks, space, making your mark, negotiating space, two way, voices, question, obstacles,
choice, places, direct impact, identities, curiosity,
play, invention, joy, fun, language, communication, accessibility, we just keep moving, sustainability, interactive, reflection,
movement, artist, documentation, education,
listening, change, sharing, movement, pavement,
street, people on streets, media, recycling,
environment, creativity, belonging, materials,
culture, home, homelessness, everyday life,
history, direction, multiple ways to tell a story,
movement, urban nomads, continuity, reflect,
migration, adapt, hybrid spaces...

the project.

getting permission;
- from council (streets
will have to be shut down).
- from home owners (works
may be displayed on and around homes).

$
1,

The project will involve inviting artists from outside Fairfield to respond to its streets, buildings, eateries etc. The project will begin with a tour of the area including the proposed streets where works are to be installed.

Sites will be discussed. Artists will be allocated a space.

ARTWORK: TRANSIT MK, 2004-06, ARTWORK BY: SEAN RAFFERTY

exposed to new artists/proposers.

Places or Spaces

OPENING NIGHT.
A STREET IN FAIRFIELD

- Visitors will be given a map of the area that will illustrate where works are placed.

- Opening speeches?
- Media/works documented.

USING THE LANGUAGE
CRAFT SECTOR. → EXISTING GROUPS
MDF CUTTHITS
GARDEN SCULPTURES
Art (Gardens) - M. J. (Gardens)

Emanuel Azzopardi of Smithfield shows Deputy Mayor Councillor Albert Moosli his Christmas light display.

Resources
Artists
(can respond to existing ART FORMS.

WORKSHOPS / THINK TANKS: getting people interested in to share ideas, research before the event will take place
ARTISTS? SEAN RAFFERTY, Sarah Newell, PAULINE HALL, Jim Johnson, ANT MARY, Tom Kelly, GINA STANISLAW, Regina Walker...

1 NIGHT?

ARTISTS
THE ELDERLY
THE PUBLIC
COUNCIL
VISITORS

Will be able to move around space, interact, make connections and discover new places