

above all things, the free exercise of religion, according to the dictates of conscience; with such other matter as is necessary for a charter to contain. Immediately after which, the said Conference to dissolve, and the bodies which shall be chosen conformable to the said charter, to be the legislators and governors of this continent for the time being: Whose peace and happiness may God preserve, Amen.

Should any body of men be hereafter delegated for this or some similar purpose, I offer them the following extracts from that wise observer on governments DRAGONETTI. "The science" says he "of the politician consists in fixing the true point of happiness and freedom. Those men would deserve the gratitude of ages, who should discover a mode of government that contained the greatest sum of individual happiness, with the least national expense." [Dragonetti on virtue and rewards]

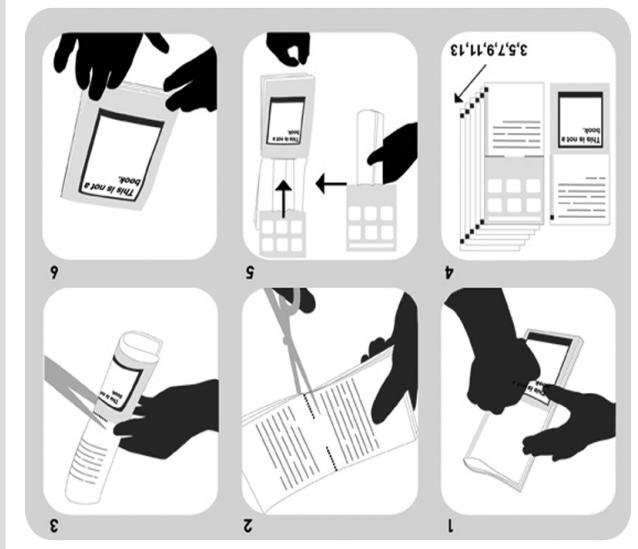

But where, says some, is the King of America? I'll tell you. Friend, he reigns above, and doth not make havoc of mankind like the Royal Brute of Britain. Yet that we may not appear to be defective even in earthly honors, let a day be solemnly set apart for proclaiming the charter; let Securing freedom and property to all men, and that our strength is continental, not provincial; that jurisdiction between them: (Always remembring, of sitting, and drawing the line of business and Congress, members of Assembly, with their date the number and manner of choosing members of what is called the Magna Carta of England) fixing or Charter of the United Colonies; (answering to business be to frame a CONTINENTAL CHARTER, The conferring members being met, let there the people, will have a truly legal authority. counsellors, and the whole, being empowered by national concerns, will be able and useful or Conventions, by having had experience in POWER. The members of Congress, Assemblies and two grand principles of business KNOWLEDGE and conference, thus assembled, will be united, the the most populous parts thereof. In this purpose, or, if more convenient, the to attend from all parts of the province for that by as many qualified voters as shall think proper province, for and in behalf of the whole province, chosen in the capital city or town of each five representatives of the people at large, to be House of Assembly, or Provincial Convention; and late rapid progress of the continent to maturity, which sooner or later must arrive, so from the independence of this continent, as an event, is as great a folly to pay a Bunker-hill price for that is all we fight for; for in a just estimation, it dearly, do we pay for the repeal of the acts, if against a contemptible ministry only. Dearly, a temporary stoppage of trade, was an matter unworthy the millions we have expended. Some just proportion to the expense. The removal of North, or the whole detestable junto, is a balance such appeals been obtained; but if the whole continent must take up arms, if every man must balanced the repeal of all the acts complained of, inconvenience, which would have sufficiency already put to. The object, contented for, ought always to bear the expense of blood and treasure we have been assured that no terms can be obtained worthy the inclination towards a compromise, we may be as Britain hath not manifested the least

Common Sense - Thoughts on the Present State of American Affairs (Part 2)

Thomas Paine

available to download, print out and share.
DIFFUSION books are designed to be freely www.diffusion.org.uk created on: Mon Apr 14 14:38:38 2008

Thomas Paine
Common Sense - Thoughts on the Present State o

the event could not be far off. Wherefore, on the breaking out of hostilities, it was not worth while to have disputed a matter, which time would have finally redressed, unless we meant to be in earnest; otherwise, it is like wasting an estate on a suit at law, to regulate the trespasses of a tenant, whose lease is just expiring. No man was a warmer wisher for reconciliation than myself, before the fatal nineteenth of April 1775, but the moment the event of that day was made known, I rejected the hardened, sullen tempered Pharaoh of England for ever; and disdain the wretch, that with the pretended title of FATHER OF HIS PEOPLE can unfeelingly hear of their slaughter, and composedly sleep with their blood upon his soul.

But admitting that matters were now made up, what would be the event? I answer, the ruin of the continent. And that for several reasons.

FIRST. The powers of governing still remaining in the hands of the king, he will have a negative over the whole legislation of this continent. And as he hath shewn himself such an inveterate enemy to liberty, and discovered such a thirst for arbitrary power; is he, or is he not, a proper man to say to these colonies, "YOU SHALL MAKE NO

SHALL BE NO LAWS BUT SUCH AS I LIKE." continent hath, or can have, shall tell us "THESE OR WHETHER THE KING, THE GREATEST ENEMY THIS MORE, THAN, WHETHER WE SHALL MAKE OUR OWN LAWS, AN INDEPENDANT, FOR INDEPENDANCY MEANS NO GOVERN US? WHOEVER SAYS NO TO THIS QUESTION, IS JEALOUS OF OUR PROSPERITY, A PROPER POWER TO THE MATTER TO ONE POINT. IS THE POWER WHO IS HERAFTER ENDEAVOUR TO MAKE US LESS? TO BRING THAN THE KING WISHES US TO BE, AND WILL HE NOT RIDICULOUSLY PETITIONING. - WE ARE ALREADY GREATER BACKWARD, OR BE PERPETUALLY QUARRELLING OR POSSIBLE? INSTEAD OF GOING FORWARD WE SHALL GO TO KEEP THIS CONTINENT AS LOW AND HUMBLE AS BUT THE WHOLE POWER OF THE CROWN WILL BE EXERCISED, MADE UP (AS IT IS CALLED) CAN THERE BE ANY DOUBT, LAWS MADE FOR US IN ENGLAND. AFTER MATTERS ARE THE WANT OF LAWS IN AMERICA, AS BY SUBMITTING TO PURPOSE. WE MAY BE AS EFFECTUALLY ENSLAVED BY LAW TO BE MADE HERE, BUT SUCH AS SUIT HIS CONSIDERING WHAT HAS HAPPENED) HE WILL SUFFER NO THERE ANY MAN SO UNWISE, AS NOT TO SEE, THAT LAWS BUT WHAT THE KING GIVES LEAVE TO; AND IS CONSTITUTION, THAT THIS CONTINENT CAN MAKE NO THAT ACCORDING TO WHAT IS CALLED THE PRESENT INHABITANT IN AMERICA SO IGNORANT AS NOT TO KNOW, LAWS BUT WHAT I PLEASE." AND IS THERE ANY

But the king you will say has a negative in England; the people there can make no laws without his consent. In point of right and good order, there is something very ridiculous, that a youth of twenty-one (which hath often happened) shall say to several millions of people, older and wiser than himself, I forbid this or that act of yours to be law. But in this place I decline this sort of reply, though I will never cease to expose the absurdity of it, and only answer, that England being the King's residence, and America not so, makes quite another case. The king's negative HERE is ten times more dangerous and fatal than it can be in England, for THERE he will scarcely refuse his consent to a bill for putting England into as strong a state of defense as possible, and in America he would never suffer such a bill to be passed.

America is only a secondary object in the system of British politics, England consults the good of THIS country, no farther than it answers her OWN purpose. Wherefore, her own interest leads her to suppress the growth of OURS in every case which doth not promote her advantage, or in the least interferes with it. A pretty state we should soon be in under such a secondhand government, considering what has happened! Men do not change from enemies to friends by the alteration of a name: And in order to shew that reconciliation now is a dangerous doctrine, I affirm, THAT IT WOULD BE POLICY IN THE KING AT THIS TIME, TO REPEAL THE ACTS FOR THE SAKE OF REINSTATING HIMSELF IN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE PROVINCES; in order, that HE MAY ACCOMPLISH BY CRAFT AND SUBTLETY, IN THE LONG RUN, WHAT HE CANNOT DO BY FORCE AND VIOLENCE IN THE SHORT ONE. RECONCILIATION and ruin are nearly related.

SECONDLY. That as even the best terms, which we can expect to obtain, can amount to no more than a temporary expedient, or a kind of government by guardianship, which can last no longer than till the colonies come of age, so the general face and state of things, in the interim, will be unsettled and unpromising. Emigrants of whose form of government hangs but by a thread, and who is every day tottering on the brink of commotion and disturbance; and numbers of the present inhabitants would lay hold of the interval, to dispense of their effects, and quit the continent.

O ye that love mankind! Ye that dare oppose, not only the tyranny, but the tyrant, stand forth! Every spot of the old world is overrun with oppression. Freedom hath been hunted round the globe. Asia, and Africa, have long expelled her - Europe regards her like a stranger, and England hath given her warning to depart. O! receive the fugitive, and prepare in time an asylum for mankind.

Sourced from Project Gutenberg <http://www.gutenberg.org>

But the most powerful of all arguments, is, that nothing but independence, i.e. a continental form of government, can keep the peace of the continent and preserve it inviolate from civil wars. I dread the event of a reconciliation with Britain now, as it is more than probable, that it will be followed by a revolt somewhere or other, the consequences of which may be far more fatal than all the malice of Britain.

Thousands are already ruined by British barbarity; (thousands more will probably suffer the same fate.) Those men have other feelings than us who have nothing suffered. All they NOW possess is liberty, what they before enjoyed is sacrificed to its service, and having nothing more to lose, they disdain submission. Besides, the general temper of the colonies, towards a British government, will be like that of a youth, who is nearly out of his time; they will care very little about her. And a government which cannot preserve the peace, is no government at all, and in that case we pay our money for nothing; and pray what is it that Britain can do, whose power will be wholly on paper, should a civil tumult break out the very day after reconciliation! I have heard some men say, many of whom I believe spoke without provoking us into justice.

not the injuries which our tempers sustain, murderer, would often escape unpunished, did the touches of affection. The robber, and the have only a casual existence were callous to dissolute, and Justice be extirpated the earth, or common animals. The social compact would purposes. They distinguish us from the herd of our hearts. They are the guardians of his image in unextinguishable feelings for good and wise Almighly hath implanted in us these continent forgive the murderers of Britain. The lover forgive the ravisher of his mistress, as the cease to be nature if she did. As well can the injures which nature cannot forgive; she would presenting addresses against us. There are now is broken, the people of England are ye reconcile Britain and America. The last cord to prostration its former innocence? Neither can ye restore to us the time that is past? Can ye give ye that tell us of harmony and reconciliation, can quarrel over than ever?

have ten times more and greater concerns to increase, or that we shall agree better, when we as the relationship expires, the affection will never long at rest; the crown itself is a temptation domestic: Monarchical governments, it is true, are Switzerland are without wars, foreign or we may say always) in peace. Holland and temptation. The republics of Europe are all (and superriority, perfect equality affords no Where there are no distinctions there can be no will be striving for superiority over another. truly chilidish and ridiculous, viz. that one colony fears, on any other grounds, than such as are No man can assign the least pretence for his reasonable person easy and happy on that head. government, as is sufficient to make every good order and obedience to continental The colonies have manifested such a spirit of reconciliation, or consider myself bound thereby. injuries, I could never relish the doctrine of circumstances ruined, that as man, sensible of and home, my property destroyed, and my own, and I protest, that were I driven from house from independence. I make the sufferers case my more to dread from a patched up connection than and that is the case here; for there are ten times seldom that our first thoughts are truly correct, fearing that it would produce civil wars. It is but thinking, that they dreaded an independence, discontented, and by assuming to themselves the powers of government, may sweep away the liberties of the continent like a deluge. Should the government of America return again into the hands of Britain, the tottering situation of things will be a temptation for some desperate adventurer to try his fortune; and in such a case, that relief can Britain give? Ere she could hear the news, the fatal business might be done; and ourselves suffering like the wretched Britons under the oppression of the Conqueror. Ye that oppose independence now, ye know not what ye do; ye are opening a door to eternal tyranny, by keeping vacant the seat of government. There are thousands, and tens of thousands, who would think it glorious to expel from the continent that barbarous and hellish power, which hath stirred up the Indians and Negroes to destroy us; the cruelty hath a double guilt, it is dealing brutally by us, and treacherously by them.

To talk of friendship with those in whom our reason forbids us to have faith, and our affections wounded through a thousand pores instruct us to detest, is madness and folly. Every day wears out the little remains of kindred between us and them, and can there be any reason to hope, that to enterprising ruffians at HOME; and that degree of pride and insolence ever attendant on regal authority, swells into a rupture with foreign powers, in instances, where a republican government, by being formed on more natural principles, would negotiate the mistake.

If there is any true cause of fear respecting independence, it is because no plan is yet laid down. Men do not see their way out - Wherefore, as an opening into that business, I offer the following hints; at the same time modestly affirming, that I have no other opinion of them myself, than that they may be the means of giving rise to something better. Could the straggling thoughts of individuals be collected, they would frequently form materials for wise and able men to improve into useful matter.

LET the assemblies be annual, with a President only. The representation more equal. Their business wholly domestic, and subject to the authority of a Continental Congress.

Let each colony be divided into six, eight, or ten, convenient districts, each district to send a proper number of delegates to Congress, so that each colony send at least thirty. The whole number in Congress will be at least 390. Each Congress to may collect together the desperate and the arse, who laying hold of popular disquietudes, day became king,] Massanello may hereafter prompte them to revolt, and in the space of a Spaniards, to whom the place was then subject marketplace, againts the oppressions of the after spiring up his countrymen in the public otherwise Massanello a fisherman of Naples, who chance. If we omit it now, some [Thomas Anello trust such an interesting event to time and manner, while we have it in our power, than to form a constitution of our own in a cool deliberate convinced, that it is infinitely wiser and safer, to precautions of human affairs, he will become when a man seriously reflects on the A government of our own is our natural right: And and scattered among the people whose right it is, the conclusion of the ceremony, be demolished, ill use should afterwards arise, let the crown at King; and there ought to be no other. But least any is law, so in free countries the law OUGHT to be IS KING. For as in absolute governments the King approve of monarchy, that in America THE LAW which the world may know, that so far as we word of God, let a crown be placed thereon, by it be brought forth placed on the divine law, the viz, two for each colony. Two Members from each A committee of twenty-six members of Congress, following manner, and for the following propose. CONTINENTAL CONFERENCE be held, in the between the Congress and the people. Let a between the governed and the governors, that is, that it should come from some intermediate body and as it seems most agreeable and consistent, in what manner, this business must first arise, But as there is a peculiar delicacy, from whom, or have joined Lucifer in his revolt. government so equally formed as this, would - He that will promote discord, under a three fifths of the Congress to be called a majority a law but what is satisfactorily just not less than rotation. And in order that nothing may pass into whole thirteen shall have had their proper former Congress, and so proceeding on till the colony from which the president was taken in the be taken by lot from twelve only, omitting that that province. In the next Congress, let a colony ballot) a president from out of the delegates of after which, let the whole Congress choose (by be taken from the whole thirteen colonies by lot, method. When the delegates are met, let a colony sit and to choose a president by the following